850. Julia Cummins: nere of 263 Queen St. w. Widow aged 48. Irish. R.C. one Son 19 years of age. Visitor thinks that this woman of 48, and her Son a young Man of 19 should do without charity.

862. Mary Jennings: 224 Queen St. east. See Case 225 in 1863. Jennings has a certificate from Dr. Gardiner, stating that he is incapable of doing any work, and from his appearance Visitor is inclined to believe that his constitution is completely broken down, but fears he has help to bring himself into the State he is now in, by indulging in drink. His Wife Visitor has always considered to be a decent sober and industrious Woman, thinks it might be well to allow them some fuel at all events, as she is out of work. 866. Ann Farrell: 92 Duchess St. Not at home when Visitor called, but has reported upon the Case for the last two years, and does not see that there is any change in her circumstances now. She still has her sick Child with her, would recommend a little Coal during the Winter.

867. Mary Forster: rere of 94 Duchess St. Widow. A very decent respectable industrious Woman (See report for the last two years) Recommended for Coal and a little bread during the Winter.

868. Johanna O'Brien: 102 George St. Widow, reported upon for the last three years. No change except that her father a very able man who used to live with her is dead. She is a very respectable Woman, and Visitor recommends her for Coal and Bread for the next six weeks.

869. Elizabeth Buggy: 90 George St. Husband ill in bed. 3 Children, Boy 10, Boy 8, girl 6, girl 4. Seems a very respectable person, her husband has been ill for some time, and they are very badly off for fuel. Mrs. Bowes seems a respectable Woman anxious to do what she can for her own support and that of her Children, but they are all young, and she cannot manage without assistance for the Winter. Recommended for Coal and Bread.

874. Elizabeth Cummings: 67 Pine St. Widow. A very decent industrious Woman. Recommended for Coal. See Case 238 in 1862.

875. Ellen Ryan: nere of 3 King St. east. Under the circumstances she is recommended for Coal and Bread during the severe Weather.

876. Ann Stergeon: 224 Queen St. east. Husband gone to the States. Has one Child, and is just now near her confinement. She is consequently incapable of doing anything for her own support just now. She is living in the same room with another family who are very poor themselves. But if she is allowed Coal and a little bread, they will keep her for the Winter, as at all events until after her confinement. Visitor therefore recommends for immediate assistance as she is really very badly off.

877. Margaret Harrington: 79 Duchess St. This Womans husband became insane a few Months ago, and is now in the Asylum. He was a Tailor by trade and while in health had a fare share of work, and he and his Wife were living comfortable enough. She has now no means of support and her Manner and appearance give one the idea that her own mind has been rather unsettled by her trouble. Visitor really thinks that she is a fit object of charity and would recommend her for assistance during the severe Weather.

878. Anne Lane: Queen St. east close to the corner of River St. in one of Depues Houses. Husband gone off to the States, leaving her with 3 Children to support, Boy 6, girl 2 1/2, boy 9 Months. Visitor would recommend Coal and a little bread.

Visitor recommends Coal, or if possible a little Wood instead, as the poor old body has but a wretched little smoky stove, which nearly puts her eyes out as it is.

881. Alexander Beatty: Wife and one Child. Visitor has known him and given him employment at different times for some years, an industrious hard working Man, but now in feeble health. Therefore recommended for Coal, receives Bread.

But as Hon. Mr. Allan knows her Case, he would recommend her for bread and Coal.

886. Ellen Brown: Widow. 75 Caroline St. an old feeble Woman. She has been receiving assistance from the House for three Winters. She is too feeble to go up to the House. Visitor would like her Coal sent to her.

Present Mr. E. Hobson, Revd. Mr. Williams & Mr. J. Tyner

1. Daniel Sullivan. 68 Dummer St. Out when Visitor called, but saw his Wife, who said that he was sickly and able to do but very little work. They have 7 Children aged 11, 9, 8, 6, 5, 4 and 2 respectively. The Wife was a dirty and untidy looking woman, but Visitor heard a good character of them. They pay [dollars] 2 a Month rent.

2. Mary Rice. 2 doors north from the Corner of Queen & Pine Streets. Widow with 2 Children, one her own, the other an orphan a sisters Child. This Case reported upon in previous years. Visitor recommends Coal twice. Mrs. Rice is most anxious to have some knitting to do and if anything of is being given out, she is strongly recommended for it, as she could then be paid in Bread.

4. James T. Lawrence. 144 Pine St. On calling on this Mans, Visitor found him so sound asleep that there was no waking him! The Wife was out, and there was only one miserable half starved little boy at home. So he could not obtain much information about them. What may have been the cause of St. Lawrence's unusually sound slumber at 2 O Clock in the afternoon whether he had been discharging his duties as an elector in the course of the Morning and was overcome with fatigue, Visitor does not know. The poor little half starved Child said that his fathers arm was broken, but Visitor could not pretend to give any opinion about the Case until they are visited again.

5. Mary McCormack. 66 James St. East. Husband a Shoemaker. 8 Children. The husband has been out of work for some Weeks and they are all in great distress for want both of food and fuel. Mrs. McCormack says her husband worked for some time for Mr. Tyner who can speak as to his Character, and as to whether he is a steady man or not. She had also a Note of recommendation from Mr. Lawson whose Church they attend. She seems a very respectable Woman and if there really is this difficulty in getting work it would seem a very fit Case for temporary relief in the shape of Coal and Bread until he can get employment.

726. Mary Jane Kennedy: 66 River Road. This is a Case of genuine distress most deserving of immediate relief. Husband and four Children, the eldest between 10 & 11, and the youngest 2 years. They were formerly very comfortably off, living on a farm of their own in the country. Some years ago they lost all they had on the farm by a fire, and were obliged to give the place up. Since then, they have been living in Town, Kennedy supporting his family by his daly [daily] labour, and the wife helping with her needle, working for some of the tailoring establishments. They had saved enough money during the summer, to make them pretty comfortable for the winter, when about two months ago, the wife was taken ill with congestion of the lungs from which she is only just recovering. The husband while attending upon her, caught cold, and has been himself confined to the House for some weeks, and is still unable to go out. They are much in want of fuel, and visitor wishes it were possible to have some sent to them at once, and allowance of Bread would of course be a great help to them, although Visitor does not see how they are to get on without firewood. They only ask for assistance until he is able to go out to work again, and if it is granted to them for a month they will probably not require anything byond [beyond] that. Irish. ChofEngl.

She married her present husband at Whitby, a labouring man. Mrs. Hickson has six Children, the two eldest girls work with her in the Tobacco Factory. 116. Mary O'Neill: all living in the Lane in rear of Cartys Soap factory George Street, may all be placed pretty much in the same Category! all are widows, and each has 3 young Children. Mrs. McKewn's husband is alive, but as good as dead! as he deserted her long ago, and went to the States. They all might be allowed Coal twice, and bread for six weeks.

117. Amelia Johnson: In a row of Cottages, known as Reids Cottages east side of Pine St. near the Hospital. A widow with 3 Children. Boy 16, and girl 14, and boy 9. Mrs. Johnson was not at home when Visitor called but saw the eldest girl, who in reply to enquiries, said that she had been out in Service and hoped to get another place shortly. The place looked very clean and tidy, and they seemed a very respectable family. Coal is probably the great want, and Mrs. Johnson will probably be able to give such further information to the Committee as they may require.
